EFFECTIVE / REFERENCE DATE	1 November 2026 to 31 October 2027

TEST DATA NOTICE. This document is fictional and created solely to test document upload, OCR, summaries, clause-level risk analysis, obligation extraction, grounded Q&A, and document comparison in ClauseIQ. Names, addresses, dates, events, and terms are invented. It is not legal advice or a valid legal instrument.

Background

The Landlord agrees to rent a fictional residential apartment to the Tenant for a one-year term. The document includes rent, deposit, maintenance, access, repairs, termination, and handover provisions.

1. Premises and Term

The Landlord rents Apartment 4B, Lakeview Residency, Meridian City, to the Tenant for residential use only from 1 November 2026 through 31 October 2027. The property description is fictional and does not identify a real premises.

2. Rent and Deposit

Monthly rent is ■22,000, payable by the fifth calendar day of each month. A refundable security deposit of ■66,000 is payable at signing. The agreement does not state whether the deposit earns interest.

Late rent attracts ■500 per day after a five-day grace period, subject to applicable law. The clause does not set a maximum late fee.

3. Utilities and Maintenance

The Tenant pays electricity, internet, and individually metered water charges. The Landlord pays property tax and structural maintenance. Routine repairs under ■2,000 per incident are paid by the Tenant, even if the repair relates to an ageing appliance.

The agreement does not define emergency repairs, response times, or how the parties approve costs above the threshold.

4. Use, Alterations, and Guests

The Tenant must keep the premises reasonably clean and may not make structural changes without written consent. Ordinary guests are permitted; subletting or paid short-term stays require prior written approval.

5. Entry and Inspection

The Landlord may enter the premises for inspection, repairs, or showing it to prospective tenants after giving reasonable notice, except in an emergency. “Reasonable notice” is not defined by a number of hours.

6. Repairs and Habitability

The Tenant must report leaks, electrical hazards, or other material defects promptly. The Landlord will arrange necessary structural repairs within a reasonable time. No escalation procedure is specified if a repair is delayed.

7. Termination and Renewal

Either party may terminate after the first six months by giving sixty days' written notice, subject to applicable law. If neither party gives notice, the lease does not automatically renew; any extension must be in writing.

Early termination by the Tenant requires payment of two months' rent as an exit charge. The clause does not explain how the charge interacts with actual losses or mandatory tenant protections.

8. Deposit Return and Handover

Within thirty days after vacant possession and key return, the Landlord will return the deposit less itemised unpaid rent, utility charges, or damage beyond ordinary wear and tear. The parties will record the condition of the premises at handover.

The agreement does not specify a dispute process for contested deductions.

9. Governing Law

This lease is governed by applicable laws of Tamil Nadu, India. Courts with lawful jurisdiction over the fictional premises may hear disputes.
